NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

The veiling of statues and images of Christ during Passiontide, i.e., the two weeks before Easter is an ancient Catholic practice which seems puzzling at first sight. Like so many Catholic Parishes, we cover our statues and crucifixes in the Church and Chapel.

Historical Background

Monsignor Elliott remarks, "The custom of veiling crosses and images has much to commend it in terms of religious psychology, because it helps us to concentrate on the great essentials of Christ's work of Redemption". The historical origin of this practice lies elsewhere. It probably derives from a custom, noted in Germany from the ninth century, of extending a large cloth before the altar from the beginning of Lent. This cloth is called the "Hungertuch" (hunger cloth). Some authors say the practical reason for this action was so the often-illiterate faithful had a way to know it was Lent. Others maintain that it was a remnant of the ancient practice of public penance in which the penitents were ritually expelled from the church at the beginning of Lent. Prior to the revision of the Roman Missal in 1970, crosses and images were covered with veils during Passiontide which is the last two weeks of Lent, starting from the end of the Mass for Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent. Since 1970, in the United States, the practice of veiling crosses and statues was not allowed since the USCCB had not voted on the issue. With the revision of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), the USCCB, in 2001, approved adaptations for the United States.

The Mystical Interpretation

Abbot Gueranger enlightens us with a mystical interpretation of the Gospel: As Christ hid Himself from the Jewish authorities, so now He is hidden from the world in preparation for the mysteries of His passion. "The presentiment of that awful hour [of our Savior's passion] leads the afflicted mother [the Church] to veil the image of her Jesus: the cross is hidden from the eyes of the faithful. The statues of the saints, too, are covered; for it is but just that, if the glory of the Master be eclipsed, the servant should not appear. Dom Gueranger speaks of the Spiritual Integration. In His passion, our Savior's divinity was almost totally eclipsed, so great was His suffering. Thus, the wounds He endured hid both His divinity and His humanity. For this reason, we veil with the sad purple cloth during Passiontide. This is a wonderful custom and very meaningful. We lose things during Lent like jubilant music, flowers, the word Alleluia, and the statues and images are draped in purple. After the Mass on Holy Thursday, the Blessed Sacrament is removed, the altar is stripped, bells are no longer rung and are replaced with wooden noise makers.

On Good Friday, there isn't even a Mass. This "liturgical death" of the Church reveals how Christ emptied Himself of His glory in order to save us from our sins and to teach us who we are. Also, during Lent we are asked to fast and abstain from certain foods. Veiling/covering crucifixes and statues can be seen as another form of "fasting/abstaining."

May God through the intercession of St. Helena bless us!

Love and Prayers,
Monsignor Nicolo

The contents of the baskets are symbolic and serve to remind us of the core beliefs of Easter. A basket should contain:

- Decorated eggs symbolizing Christ's Resurrection,
- Bread, usually with a cross formed in the crust symbolizing Jesus' Death,
- A Lamb carved from sugar or butter representing Christ, the Paschal Lamb,
- Salt to represent purification,
- Horseradish or pepper to remind us of the bitter Sacrifice of Christ,
- Ham or Kielbasa to symbolize great joy and abundance,
- Other foods your family may prepare for your Easter feast.

All family members are encouraged to come together at Mass! Through this prayer, families are urged to devote themselves to the model of familial love set by Jesus, Mary and Joseph and to be a beacon of God’s love through His Church.

Holy Family Consecration Prayer

O Lord Jesus,
you lived in the home of Mary and Joseph in Nazareth. There you grew in age, wisdom and grace as you prepared to fulfill your mission as our Redeemer.

We entrust our family to you.

O Blessed Mary,
you are the Mother of our Savior. At Nazareth you cared for Jesus and nurtured him in the peace and joy of your home.

We entrust our family to you.

O Saint Joseph,
you provided a secure and loving home for Jesus and Mary,

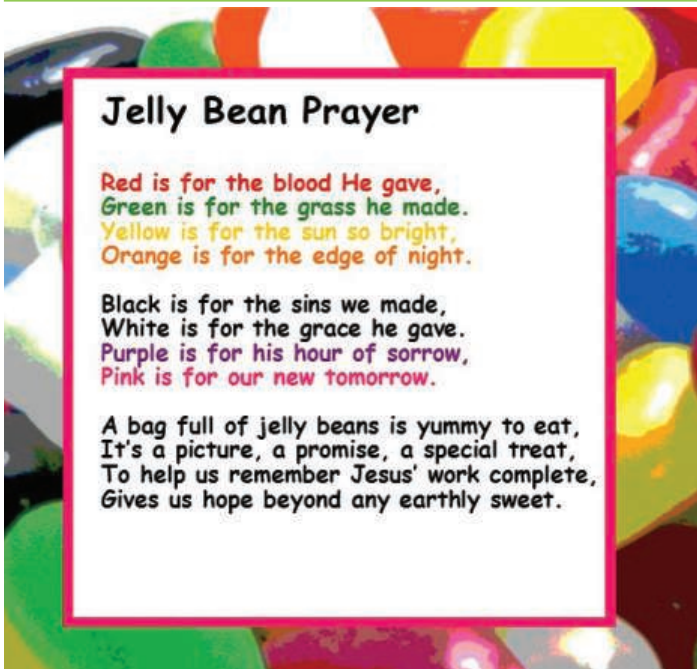

and gave us a model of fatherhood while showing us the dignity of work.

We entrust our family to you.

Holy Family,
we consecrate ourselves and our family to you. May we be completely united in a love that is lasting, faithful and open to the gift of new life. Help us to grow in virtue, to forgive one another from our hearts, and to live in peace all our days.

Keep us strong in faith, persevering in prayer, diligent in our work, and generous toward those in need.

May our home, O Holy Family, truly become a domestic church where we reflect your example in our daily life. Amen.
Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Jelly Bean Prayer

Red is for the blood He gave,
Green is for the grass he made.
Yellow is for the sun so bright,
Orange is for the edge of night.

Black is for the sins we made,
White is for the grace he gave.
Purple is for his hour of sorrow,
Pink is for our new tomorrow.

A bag full of jelly beans is yummy to eat,
It's a picture, a promise, a special treat,
To help us remember Jesus' work complete,
Gives us hope beyond any earthly sweet.
