NIC NOTES

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

Over the next few Nic Notes, I am going to be writing about what a parish is to be, and how we - each one of us - can make our parish even better than it is now.

Parishioners expect to feel a true sense of ownership when it comes to their parish; one's parish is more than just a place where you attend Mass. A parish is a sacred place where we humans and the Divine meet. It is a place where people of all ages, from the very young to the "more mature" grow in the knowledge and understanding of what it means to be a follower of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The parish is also a place where we, the parishioners, receive spiritual nourishment, guidance, inspiration and strength. We receive these "gifts" not just from the priests, but also from one another. A parish is to be a spiritual home for each and every one of us, a sacred "space" where we can share in one another's joy, support each other in times of sorrow, offer encouragement to those who are struggling, and be present to help and to heal those who feel battered or broken by the tragedies and trials of life. The parish is also to be a social place, where we can make new friends and reach out to those who are less fortunate. The parish is a place where we invite others to become part of our community of believers who strive to live the Gospel.

Our parish is alive and well! Yet, we need always to strive to be all that God wants us to be. When you take ownership in your parish in the fullest sense by your active interest, we, as a parish, grow and prosper. When we see the parish for what it truly is, we do become more welcoming and alive.

May God, through the intercession of Saint Helena, bless us!

*Love & prayers,
Monsignor Nicolò*

I am edified by the generosity and goodness of our parishioners. Thank you for tithing.

CareNotes - A Catholic Perspective

CareNotes, a ministry of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, are booklets written to provide uplifting guidance to those who are hurting.

These wellness-oriented booklets address real-life emotional, physical and spiritual needs with topics that include grief, aging, healthcare, mental wellness, family care, spiritual support and more.

Whether you are dealing with difficult emotions or you minister to someone who is, you're sure to find the topic that applies directly to your situation. The down-to-earth style of each CareNote offers relatable advice to help you heal - mind, body and spirit.

Please check out the kiosk in the back of the Church narthex and consider picking up a booklet or two for yourself and a friend. CareNotes is owned and operated by the monks of Saint Meinrad Archabbey. All donations and proceeds support their prayer and work.
